

Across

1. One of the environmental safety concerns that should be considered before conducting a body measurement includes assessment s_____
4. If the client has a pressure area in direct contact with the assessment surface, a_____ should be made or decision to assess the client when the wound is healed
6. One of the 3 mandatory measurements for cushion prescriptions is hip _____
7. Assessment should be conduct on a _____ surface
8. Seat surface to _____ height should be included in th body measurement if thoracic lateral supports are required in a high back support
11. Body measurement should be conducted according to the desired _____ established from the outcome of the MAT

Down

2. _____ width and depth should be included in the body measurement if thoracic lateral supports are required in a high back support
3. One of the safety concerns that should be considered before conducting a body measurement includes B_____
5. If the client is a 'propped sitter', you may consider to perform the body measurement in _____
6. One of the risk factors that should be considered before conducting a body measurement includes the w_____ of the client
9. One of the safety factors that should be considered before conducting a body measurement includes s_____
10. One of the 3 mandatory measurements for cushion prescriptions is thigh_____