

Privacy Management Annual Report 2023-24

This report is produced by the NSW Agency for Clinical Innovation (ACI) in accordance with Ministry of Health annual reporting requirements regarding privacy matters.

Part 1. Compliance activities

The ACI is committed to meeting its privacy obligations under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (PPIP Act) and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (HRIP Act) through appropriate governance and the provision of privacy information, training and support to staff.

The ACI provides ongoing privacy information and support to its staff through:

- Privacy awareness training sessions for new staff.
- A privacy intranet website which provides staff with access to:
 - NSW privacy legislation
 - NSW Health Privacy Manual for Health Information
 - NSW Health Privacy Management Plan
 - Details of mandatory and additional online privacy training
 - Links to internal resources including the NSW eHealth supported Secure File Transfer (SFT) application
 - Links to external resources including the NSW Information and Privacy Commission
- Guided on-line privacy training and provided on-demand, tailored face to face programs.
- Access to a privacy information leaflet for staff.
- Privacy information is provided to consumers through an Information Privacy Internet site at: <https://aci.health.nsw.gov.au/about/privacy>
- Privacy audits on access to key information systems.
- The ACI Privacy Contact Officer has continued to provide policy and compliance support and advice to ACI staff, particularly in relation to access to, and disclosure of, personal and personal health information and electronic health systems.
- The Privacy Contact Officer actively participates in privacy networking and professional development, and attended privacy information and network sessions during 2023-24 which were facilitated by the NSW Ministry of Health Regulation and Compliance Unit.
